

Course Information

HLTAID004 Provide an emergency first aid response in an education and care setting

This course is specifically designed to provide knowledge and skills in how to provide first aid in an education and care setting, including for asthma and anaphylaxis emergencies.

Note: This course follows current Australian Resuscitation Guidelines. It is recommended that CPR knowledge and skills are refreshed annually.

This course meets current ACECQA requirements for Asthma, Anaphylaxis and First Aid Training.

Course units

Completing this course will provide participants with the following units

- HLTAID001 Provide cardiopulmonary resuscitation
- HLTAID002 Provide basic emergency life support
- HLTAID003 Provide first aid
- HLTAID004 Provide an emergency first aid response in an education and care setting

Qualifications

This is a nationally recognised training course and it is recommended to be renewed annually. Upon successful completion, the attendee will receive a Statement of Attainment.

Pre-requisites

It is a requirement of this course that practical demonstration of CPR by the learner be performed on the floor.

Assessments

- Practical demonstration of a range of first aid procedures as outlined in the unit of competency, including but not limited to CPR.
- Written Multiple Choice Test - requiring 100% correct answers.
- Completion of an incident report form

Training Options

Full face-to-face Training

- Duration: 2 days

Mixed-mode Training: Online / Face-to-face

- Duration: 1 day (approx) face-to-face, with pre-course online module

Course Cost

- $145.00 per person